Montag, 3. Oktober Tag der Deutschen Einheit (Day of German Unity)

Tag der Deutschen Einheit (Day of German Unity) is the German national holiday, commemorating the anniversary of German reunification in 1990.

The Day of German Unity is celebrated each year with a Bürgerfest hosted by a major city— 2022 geplant in Erfurt, Hauptstadt of Thüringen.

The Bürgerfest also includes the Ländermeile, where each Bundesland can highlight their tourist attractions, cultural treasures, and culinary specialties. This is supported by the Zipfelbund.

DIENSTAG is the 6th National TEACH GERMAN Day. This day celebrates German teaching and learning.

AATG encourages the next Generation of German Teachers. National TEACH GERMAN Day is for sharing the story of language education's importance in the US, and encouraging students to consider careers as German educators.

All advocates of German language education engage in a variety of activities to celebrate and promote German. Come check out what students are doing!

All German Students are wearing a sticker today.

1. The students need to TEACH 10 German words/phrases to 10 people. Help them meet their goal! They must record or have a picture of them teaching.
2. Please honor of ALL teachers today, by saying thank you in German: DANKE

Show your pride wear Schwarz-Rot-Gold!

Wear the colors of countries that speak German!

*#GermanAmericanDay

*Celebrates German-American heritage

*Commemorates the 13 German families who moved to Philadelphia from Krefeld in 1683, who founded Germantown, Pennsylvania.

*Germantown was the first German settlement in the original thirteen American colonies.

*Germantown organized the first petition in the English colonies to abolish slavery in 1688.

*1883 was the first celebration of "German Day". This marked the 200th anniversary of the Krefeld settlers.

*During World War I the custom died out until 1983.

*In 1983, President Ronald Reagan proclaimed October 6 as German-American Day to celebrate and honor the 300th anniversary of German American immigration and culture to the United States.

*In 1987 it became Public Law 100-104

Deutschlandjahr USA/Year of German-American Friendship.

Started in 2018 under the motto Wunderbar together the Federal Republic of Germany kicked off Deutschlandjahr USA/Year of German-American Friendship during National German Week, with a year of events and activities highlighting the unique importance of German-American transatlantic relations.

This collaborative initiative of the Federal Foreign Office, the Goethe-Institute, and the Federation of German Industries (BDI) celebrates a centuries-long relationship linked by heritage, common values, and shared interests. It continues to showcase a multifaceted, modern image of Germany focused on business and industry, politics, education, culture, and science.
