Angela Ensalaco Instead of attending political events he should be making sure that the staff of the school district are doing their jobs correctly. My daughter is being screwed over by this district once again. First it was a horrible second grade teacher who refused to do his job, caused her to hate school, and no matter how much I complained nothing was ever done. Next was her 5th grade teacher flat out lying to be...telling us she would be in honors classes. I get her schedule and there was no honors classes. I talk to me her counselor and was informed that she didn't qualify. Complained about the 5th grade teacher but NO ONE ever got back to me about that. Now she was planning on taking the Engineering class as a Freshman...requires Geometry to get in. Based upon course descriptions Marh 803 is Algebra which means she would be eligible for Geometry this fall and thus able to take her Engineering class. Now I am being told the course catalog is incorrect and 803 is only PreAlgebra. I don't want to say the teacher is lying to cover his situation, however, after the other two teachers I am not going to back down on this issue. So either the teacher did not teach the right materials to the students or someone failed to proofread the course catalog. Either way my daughter is being screwed over by this school district AGAIN.

Emily Tuleja-Lenac I have no problem with helping children learn English. My issue with this is, my son has a recognized speech problem from the speech pathologist at school. The district has money for this yet my son can't get speech therapy with the main reason being "he's not being mad fun of."

Cyndy Petriak Benavides Not so amazing. One bilingual parent liaison for the district. How about one for each school that houses bilingual students. Wait that is right they will be housed at one school only. What a joke.

Michael J. Mueller What a joke. The other superintendents in this group should be embarrassed to be associated with him. He has no business being recognized for any honor.

Meta Damm Mueller What makes this certification elite? It says any superintendent with less than 5 years experience can apply.
