Interesting article. Like I said before I don't infuse my personal stance on what is expected of teachers and students in regards to COVID precautions. If it is an SD308 policy to wear masks then I would imagine that expectation would be enforced. If things change as a result of this ruling (not sure if Oswego is in the 140 school districts or if it pertains to all districts or not) then obviously all teachers can make choices on masking in line with those new policies set for the by SD308.

I would imagine more information will come from the district office prior to Monday.

Have a good weekend,
Dan
