Map of Europe Guidelines

Before studying history of a place, it is important to understand its geography. Your task is to put the following places of significance on a blank map of Europe. This map is worth 20 points. Additionally, there are guidelines that every good map follows.

- ❖ Every map includes: Title, a compass rose, and a key. Other helpful hints: Bodies of water are always labeled in blue. Label all countries and cities in black INK (no pencil please!) Capital cities are marked with a star, regular cities just a dot.

Places of significance: England/U.K., Ireland, France, Italy, Spain, Portugal, London, Russia, Paris, Germany, Berlin, Atlantic Ocean, Finland, Poland, Rome, Greece, Sweden, Mediterranean Sea, Austria, Berlin, Belgium, Moscow, Baltic Sea, The Alps, Norway, North Sea, Denmark, Czech Republic, Turkey, Black Sea, Switzerland.

To receive full points you must follow the guidelines of a good map, label each place of significance, and be neat and accurate!
